Gen. Grant and the Radicals.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—General Grant denies the reports put in circulation concerning his preference as regards a vote in Pennsylvania. The General says "his record is that of a soldier, and he has condemned the practice of officers making political capital off of the records of the army." It is not in accordance with his way of doing things.

The General regrets exceedingly that his name has been mixed up with local politics. The report, as published, is a tissue of falsehoods.—Gen. Grant never made use of the language attributed to him. He is a warm supporter of the President's policy, and is doing all in his power to influence every one to the same way of thinking.

TEXAS REJECTS THE AMENDMENT.—The Texas Legislature, through the action of the committee on Federal Relations, has respectfully returned to the Government the constitutional amendment, declining its further consideration. The ground assigned is thus expressed in the report:

Article thirteen, sections one and two. Have the honor to report as follows:

The people of Texas, in Convention assembled, have already by their ordinance acknowledged the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States; in which Constitution the above-named article thirteen is embraced as part of the same; the courts of law so hold and administer said article thirteen.

The Legislature has no authority in this matter; any action on the same would be surplusage, if not intrusive.

The committee therefore ask to be excused from the further consideration of the same; and they herewith respectfully return the communication of the Honorable the Secretary of State of the United States.

THE PROSPECTS IN PENNSYLVANIA.—A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, who concedes that Clymer may be defeated for Governor, says, as to the rest of the elections in Pennsylvania:

"From the information I have received, and the sound reasons given me in support of its correctness, I should not be surprised if the entire representation from the city of Philadelphia were conservative,—that the majority of the delegation may be so I have no doubt, and I think your readers may place more confidence in my opinion than in that of your former correspondent. The fight in Pennsylvania, however, will be made chiefly for the Legislature, so as to secure the re election of Senator Cowan, and all the politicians from that State with whom I have conversed believe that they will succeed in this important object. I am assured by several of the candidates for Congress, who are opposing the present Radical incumbents that the coming elections will give Pennsylvania a majority of conservative members in the next Congress."

WM. B. STOKES, OF TENN.—From a reliable source we learn that Wm. B. Stokes, M. C., from Tennessee, in a late speech in Jonesboro', Tenn., said that he had lately met Z. B. Vance at Washington city, who admitted in a conversation with him, that he (Vance) had acted the part of a very bad man in the late war,—so much so that he could scarcely pick up courage to enter a decent man's house. Every one who knows Gov. V. will know at once that this statement is a roorlack of the hugest dimensions. This is the same Stokes who was in Nashville with his cavalry when Forrest approached the city. The General sent the following message to the authorities: "Remove the women and children and Stokes' Cavalry, or I will fire on the town."—Asheville News.

Generously Waiving the Civil Rights Bill.

A friend tells the following good story, which merits being put on record. A gentleman of this city, owning a large plantation on Santee, gave a good house, formerly the overseer's, to a trusty negro, one of the superintendents of the estate. A white family of squatters, however, held possession of the house, and the freedman was debarred from entering on his rights. He went back to the planter, his late master, and complained, when the following dialogue ensued:

Planter.—"But, Pompey, the house is yours,—you are the lawful owner; and no one has any right to occupy it without your consent."

Pompey.—"Yes, massa, I done tole'm so. But he say he won't go."

Planter.—"Well, Pompey, suppose you go to the Freedmen's Bureau, state your grievance, and apply for assistance to have this man ejected."

Pompey.—(Scratching his head for some time in an uneasy state of inability to make up his mind.) "No, sah, I can't do that; I wouldn't like to take advantage of my color."

Chas. Ev. News.

A young lady, now employed as a compositor on the Montgomery Advertiser, had 300 bales of cotton burned during the war. Instead of repining over her misfortune, she now goes to work at a business most congenial to her intellectual taste.

A RAD IN TROUBLE.—A prominent clergyman of Philadelphia was brought before Recorder Eneu, on Monday, on the charge of defrauding another clergyman of equal prominence in certain transactions in oil stocks. The accused was held to bail to answer.

Tammany Hall, one of the land-marks of the Democracy, and a building with which are connected some of the pleasantest reminiscences of men and things in New York, will be sold to the highest bidder next month. The "Sachems" have determined to build a large "wigwam."

A good joke took place in a court room down east. A woman was testifying in behalf of her son, and swore that he had worked on a farm ever since he had been born. The lawyer who cross-examined her said:

"You assert your son worked on a farm ever since he was born?"

"I do."

"What did he do the first year?"

"He Milked."

"My son, hold up your hand and tell me who was the strongest man?"

"Jonah."

"Why so?"

"Cause the whale couldn't hold him after he got him down."

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered,

PETER R. DAVIS,
Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to war ant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR,

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 50 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.

JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

Southern Feeling.

Much capital is sought to be made at the North, against the Southern States and people, by charging that they set up high claims for themselves, that they are clamorous for their "rights," &c. The South has neither been clamorous nor has it vaunted its claims. President Johnson, no doubt after consultation with the leaders of the Republican party, required certain conditions of the Southern States and people. It was understood that these terms were satisfactory to the North. What has been the course of the South? Why, simply to accept them and to carry them out. If these terms confer rights upon us, or admit that we have rights, they have been set up for us by the President and the Conservatives, North. In no proper sense can it be said that the South is clamorous for its rights. As we have complied, on our part, it is but simple justice that we ask that the pledges of the government shall be fulfilled.

Gen. Grant, last winter, made a personal inspection of the state of feeling in the South and of our disposition to submit to the terms proposed. He made the following statements to the President in his report:

"Both in travelling and while stopping I saw much and conversed freely with the citizens of those States, (North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia,) as well as with officers of the army who have been among them. The following are the conclusions come to by me:

I am satisfied that the mass of thinking men of THE SOUTH accept the present situation of affairs IN GOOD FAITH. The questions which have heretofore divided the sentiments of the people of the two sections—SLAVERY and STATE RIGHTS, or the right of a State to secede from the UNION—they regard as having been settled FOREVER by the highest tribunal—arms—that man can resort to. I was pleased to learn from the leading men whom I met that they not only accepted the decision arrived at as final, but that now the smoke of battle has cleared away, and time has been given for reflection, that this decision has been a fortunate one for the whole country, they receiving the like benefits from it with those who opposed them in the field and in the cabinet.

My observations led me to the conclusion that the citizens of the Southern States are anxious to return to self-government WITHIN THE UNION as soon as possible; that while reconstructing they want and require protection from the government; that they are in earnest in wishing to do what they think is required by the government not humiliating to them as citizens, and that if such a course was pointed out they would pursue it in good faith. It is to be regretted that there cannot be a greater commingling at this time between the citizens of the two sections, and particularly those entrusted with the law-making power.

U. S. GRANT, Lieut. Gen.

Washington, Dec. 18, 1865.

When this report was read in Congress, Sumner called it a "white-washing" concern. This was after Holden & Co. had raised the clamor in regard to the Southern elections. The feelings attributed to the Southern people by Gen. Grant, in December last, and by Gen. Gordon Granger, recently, are what they were then and what they are now, bating the feeling which has been engendered by the violent course of the Radicals. This feeling, as well as the denunciations of the South by the North, has been intensified by the ungenerous and false charges made against the Southern people by malicious Southern men and unprincipled letter-writers who have travelled among us. Holden, Brownlow, Hamilton, and others, are at the bottom of the violence and fierceness of the North.

K. P. Battle, Esq.

The State never had a better officer, nor this city a more unexceptionable or more worthy citizen, than Kemp P. Battle, Esq., the present efficient Public Treasurer. The scurrilous and unprovoked anonymous attack upon this gentleman, in the Standard of to-day, will meet the scorn and condemnation of nearly this entire community. Indeed, no one can give it countenance, except the cowardly author, who attempts to stab him with a concealed weapon, and the Editors of the Standard. Mr. Battle cannot condescend to notice it himself, in any way, but our duty to a meritorious public officer and the community, demands it at our hands, without his knowledge or prompting.

The caveat which Mr. Holden enters against the article, which he maliciously and improperly publishes, only "damns with faint praise" the object of the attack. If the disclaimer were prompted by a sense of justice, that justice would have consigned the scurrilous attack to the flames, instead of the columns of the Standard. It is only of a piece with the mischief which that paper is constantly making against every citizen that does not support Mr. Holden's course, as well as the slanders which it is constantly perpetrating against the people of the State and the whole South. That paper loses no opportunity to excite the malevolence of our enemies against gentlemen, whose child or servant happens to sing "Dixie," or, in childish sport, sticks upon a tree an old electioneering document. Shameful! Shameful!

R. C. Badger, Esq.

Mr. Badger, having been nominated for the House of Commons in Wake County, in one of the City papers, published a card, in which he says that owing to the engagements of his profession and the duties of his office as County Attorney, he cannot be a candidate.

But Mr. Badger is not a Worth man. He will not vote for Jonathan Worth for Governor.—Standard.

Will the Standard dare to assert that Mr. Badger will vote for Gen. Dockery, or any other man who endorses the Howard amendment?

Exhibitions at the Capitol.

We have already stated the case truly and fairly in reference to the exhibitions at the Capitol, in our reply to the Charlotte Democrat. The object of the Democrat was a laudable one, to guard the public interest against extravagance, but the Standard uses the occasion, as it is wont, to stir up mischief and to slander Gov. Worth and this community. We speak advisedly, when we say that every public officer is opposed to the use of the Halls of the Capitol for purposes of exhibition. They yielded its use simply as a matter of charity to aid in meeting the pressing calls for humane and charitable objects. Every officer of public buildings ignores and condemns, unqualifiedly, the conduct of either exhibitors or any portion of the audience, who do or say anything to offend Federal officers, soldiers, or Northern men who may attend them. No thoughtful man or woman in the community approves or endorses anything of the kind. Self respect, if nothing else, would prompt them to disapprove of such things, but it becomes the more necessary because of Mr. Holden's constant anxiety to make use of every incident whatever, and by whomsoever committed, to damage the people of this City, the State and the South. He falsely, yet persistently, charges our people with being disloyal. He, therefore, must make it good, even to the arraigning of little boys and girls.

There is no justifiable reason whatever, in a promiscuous audience at an exhibition or any where else, for the introduction of anything which could by possibility be offensive to any portion of the audience. And as to soldiers, true soldiers who conduct themselves with propriety, we honor them everywhere. It is unbecoming a brave people to be ungenerous or vindictive. And if we ever felt hostility to Federal soldiers, that hostility should be greatly modified, when they are known to have been companions in arms with the noble, brave men who recently assembled at Cleveland, Ohio.

As to the conduct of boys on such occasions, no one takes account of it, except Mr. Holden and such like. Parents, however, should instruct them better. No one but a chafed, morbid mind, full of vindictiveness, could attempt to make capital out of the conduct of boys on such occasions. The clapping and cheers of the boys are executed mechanically, and without a knowledge of facts, as was plainly indicated by their clapping as loudly at the exhibition of Federal as of Confederate victories. Moreover, we have seen deaf mutes clapping and huzzahing as lustily as others.

"——— the honest Dockery"—(!!)—Ibid.

Northampton County.

We are glad to learn, from an entirely responsible source, that all the candidates recently nominated at both meetings held at Jackson, Northampton County, are unqualifiedly Johnson-Worth men and opposers of the Howard or negro suffrage amendment. We learn that Gen. Ransom and Capt. Stancill, nominated for the Commons, have both declined. The candidates in the field, therefore, are Gen. T. J. Person and R. H. Garner, Esq., for the Senate, and Messrs. Jas. W. Newsom and Capt. E. A. Martin for the Commons.

NOTHING HAS been heard from Gen. Dockery up to this present writing. If the old gentleman ascertains the whole truth about the manner and matter of his nomination, he can hardly afford to run for dead ducks.

Adroit Tactics.

Under this caption the Richmond Whig notices the tactics employed by the Radicals in denouncing all the opposition to their measures that is made at the North as Southern or "rebel" opposition. After demonstrating that the Southern people have really claimed nothing, that they have been simply silent and acquiescent in all that has been demanded of them by the President, and that everything that has been claimed for them has been claimed by the President and the Northern Conservatives, the Whig proceeds to ventilate certain portions of the Address of "The National Union (Radical) Committee to the American people," and especially that portion which is in the following language: "If those who so wantonly plunged the Union into civil war shall be allowed by you to dictate the terms of re-construction, you will have heedlessly sown the bitter seeds of future rebellion and strife." Says the Whig:

"When and how has the silent, passive South attempted to dictate? Dictation implies power; the South is powerless. It has not a representative in Congress—or in the army, or in the navy, or in the institutions of learning connected with them, or in the Cabinet, or in any Department or bureau of the Government. The power that excludes them from these positions is the power that dictates.

The President, acting under his official oaths and responsibilities, as the head of the nation, and for the interests of the whole country, pledged himself to the Southern States, that they should be restored to their places in the Union, with all the rights that the other States enjoy under the Constitution, if they would ratify the Constitutional amendment, repudiate the Confederate war debt, and repeal the ordinance of secession. They complied with the condition. Congress assembled and repudiated the action, and disdainfully disregarded the pledges of the President. After the South had done all that was demanded of her, not so much for the lust for political power, as from the desire to manifest a complying disposition, and to mark her appreciation of the President's magnanimity, Congress declared that the conditions exacted were unsatisfactory. It did not release the South from what it had done in obedience to the requirements of the Executive. No. It demanded that it should all stand and be binding, notwithstanding the failure of the consideration. It added other conditions, involved in what is known as the Constitutional amendment, upon the ratification of which, by the several States, Congress may (or may not, as it shall choose) admit them to representation. The President feels bound by every obligation of honor to keep faith with the South and to redeem his pledges. He protests against the right of Congress to hinder him in so doing. It is he and the Northern Conservatives who claim that the South has been swindled, and that she is entitled to representation, and to all the other rights accorded to the States of the North.

There has been no political self-motion on the part of the South. She cannot fairly be charged with demanding anything, or with attempting to dictate in any manner. The President, who she at first supposed to be her worst enemy, showed himself unexpectedly to her to be desirous to compose strife, and to restore the Constitution and the Union. He was then in full communion with the dominant party, by which he had been elected, and we all hoped that what he did would be acquiesced in by that party. The whole political action of the South was the result of his suggestions, and was intended to be responsive to them, and to show a sincere desire to obey the Federal authority.

In the contest between him and the Congressional majority, the South, of course, has made her choice, so far as she has the power of choice. Is it to be wondered at that she welcomes the hand that is extended to raise her up, rather than the hand that is extended to smite her? She has promises and pledges on the one side and denunciation and threats on the other.

Is it fair to blame the South for what the President has done, and to punish her for what the Northern Conservatives are doing? It begins to look as if we are to be made the scapegoat, and to receive all the punishment. To spite the President and the Northern Conservatives, the South is still further to be kicked and cuffed. It would almost be better for us to have no friends than friends whose well-meant offices only increase our troubles.

We must take care of ourselves, and not heedlessly and from Quixotic gratiude run our heads against a brick wall. We have no power to do anything more than we have done, and there is no use in making a mere empty show, which can only result in the still greater exasperation of our enemies. If they can accomplish so much by mere pretexts, how much more could they accomplish if we furnish them a capital of solid realities. Our course is plain. Let us keep quiet and mind our business, leaving the struggle at the North to be carried on by the Northern parties. If there is to be fighting, let it be done by them, and let us keep out of it until ordered to the field by the competent military authority, and then when we fight it will be under the flag of the Union."

Where Are They?

We have yet to see or hear of the first citizen of Wake County, outside of a very small coteria that pins its faith to Mr. Holden, who favors the Howard amendment or will vote for any man who endorses it. We predict that no candidate for the Legislature in this county will advocate it. If any one does, we further predict that he will not get enough votes to elect a constable in one of our small districts.

In this connection, we call attention to the proceedings of the working-men of the city at the Court House last evening. We hail this movement with feelings of the most lively gratification. The merchants and working-men have exhibited great good sense in this matter. They will, to a man, stand by their determination, and will support no one for office who is in favor of the Howard amendment.

THE VIRGINIA PRESS.—Mr. A. F. Crutchfield has retired from the editorial conduct of the Petersburg Express, and is succeeded by Mr. Oakley P. Haines.

H. Rives Pollard has sold the Richmond Examiner to Thomas H. Wynne, Esq., of that city, and retires from editorial life.

MR. HOLDEN, some time ago, was in no humor to notice the quips and quiddities of the Sentinel, but wanted to discuss principles. We challenge him to a discussion of the Howard amendment upon its own merits. Will he venture a decent reply to our leader of yesterday on that subject.

FOR NEWS and miscellany see first page.

THE LAWYERS.—We distinctly stated, and have repeated it since, that the disfranchisement, under the Howard amendment, extends only to those who took the oath, as an officer, to support the Constitution of the United States. Hence we said, that the passage of the amendment in this particular could enure but little to the advantage of the Radicals, because enough men could be found to fill many of the offices who were not disfranchised, but who were not tainted with Radicalism. But the principle of the amendment is, that those who took the oath, and afterwards violated it, shall be excluded from office; hence we say if the principle is carried out and not the verbiage of the amendment, it would exclude all who had taken the oath and afterwards violated it. As to the charge of the Standard, that the cause of the Sentinel prospers only by perversion and misrepresentation, we are willing to leave that to the judgment of the public.

MR. W. J. DOUGHTY.—The Standard occupies nearly a column in vindication of this young gentleman from an insinuation, that he caused to be posted a placard, in Beaufort, inviting the "colored brethren" in that town to attend a meeting of the "unmistakably loyal" men.—Mr. Doughty also publishes a card, denies his complicity in the matter, and says that "it is understood by the citizens of Beaufort that it was done by some unknown secessionist, as an attempt to ridicule the Union men." We are at a loss to see how the citizens of Beaufort can know that a "secessionist" did it, when it is declared that the perpetrator is "unknown."

But that is neither here nor there. We give Mr. Doughty the benefit of his denial, with the simple observation that we made no charge against him. Supposing that the Commercial pointed at him, and knowing that he was very respectably connected in Hertford and Gates, our only object was to draw him out, to extract a denial, if he was injured, for the benefit of himself and his friends in those counties.

Gov. Worth in Craven.

Extract from a letter dated

CRAVEN Co., Sept. 24.

"A considerable portion of our population, as you know, is made up of Northern men, and these, to a considerable extent, embrace the doctrines of Radicalism. A combination between this class, and such fellows as Thomas and Stanly, originated the meeting which recommended the Convention in Raleigh. The whole concern, however, is without influence, and the vote of the County will not be affected one particle by anything they can do or say. Outside of this City, Dockery will not get twenty-five votes in Craven."

For the Sentinel.

Public Meeting of the Working-Men of Raleigh.

On a call, previously made, a meeting of the Working-men was held at the Court House, in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday evening, 26th inst., for the purpose of considering the propriety of nominating candidates for the Legislature, and to take such other action as they might deem necessary.

The meeting was called to order by the appointment of Mr. Jas. C. Marcom, Chairman, and John C. Gorman, Secretary.

After an explanation of the object of the meeting, on motion of Mr. John N. Bunting, a Committee of three were appointed for the purpose of reporting resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Jno. N. Bunting, Jno. Nichols and Peter Fleming a Committee for that purpose.

While awaiting the report of the Committee, the meeting was highly entertained by a short speech from Capt. J. Q. A. DeCarteret, who arose after urgent calls from the house, in which he eloquently treated on the past rights and wrongs of working-men, and their present and future political duty.

After which, the Committee on Resolutions, through their Chairman, reported the following preamble, resolutions and nominations, which were received:

WHEREAS, The Working-men of Wake county, feeling that their interests have never been fully and properly represented in our State Councils, and believing that by fostering and cherishing our mechanical and agricultural interests alone we can hope rapidly and effectually to repair the destructions of the late disastrous war, desire to express their convictions upon the present situation; therefore,

1. Resolved, That as our State is in a condition of wretched poverty, and our people scarcely able to maintain themselves by their labor, we are opposed to the levy of any tax, or the appropriation of any money, by the next General Assembly, for any other purposes than such as are indispensably necessary to support the machinery of the State Government, unless it be found practicable to re-establish the Common School System, for the benefit of our poor white children.

2. Resolved, That as the Howard amendment will disfranchise many of our loyal citizens,—will have a tendency to disorganize our State Government, and throw us into a state of anarchy—and, as we believe, will ultimately lead to negro suffrage, we are opposed to its adoption by the next General Assembly.

3. Resolved, That the Working-men of this County, in order that they may have their fair share of the representatives, do nominate a ticket, to be composed of two of their number, and of two other acceptable citizens taken from the other walks of life.

4. Resolved, That we respectfully recommend to the citizens of Wake County the following ticket: For the Senate, Wiley D. Jones. For the Commons, Albert Johnson, Wm. Laws and J. Q. DeCarteret.

On motion of Mr. Separks, the resolutions were voted upon seriatim.

The first and second resolutions passed unanimously, and the third, after discussion, was finally adopted.

The fourth resolution was amended by the substitution of Capt. R. S. Perry for the Commons, in the place of Wm. Laws, and then the entire resolution was rejected.

An animated discussion as to the propriety and policy of nominating candidates was then had, participated in by Messrs. Collins, Royster, Nichols, Barbee and others.

Finally, on motion, the third resolution was reconsidered, and the following adopted in its stead:

Resolved, That we, the working men of Raleigh, pledge ourselves to vote against any candidate who favors the adoption of the Howard amendment, or opposes the early re-establishment of our Common School system.

After which, on motion, the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be sent to each of the City papers, with a request to publish.

The meeting then adjourned.

JAS. C. MARCOM, Chairman.
JNO. C. GORMAN, Secretary.

Tribute of Respect.

UNIVERSITY OF N. C.
DIALECTIC HALL, Sept. 21st. 1866.

The Dialectic Society has lost one of its most distinguished and useful ornaments, by the death of the Hon. JNO. M. MOREHEAD, who departed this life on the 27th. ultimo, in the seventy first year of his age.

Mr. Morehead was a regular and most valued member of this Society for more than fifty years. He graduated at this University in 1817, was for one year a tutor in the Institution, and soon after became one of its most active and efficient Trustees. Devoting his earlier manhood to the profession of the law, he became the ablest advocate in the circuit in which he practiced. As a popular orator, with power to sway the opinions and actions of men, he had few equals in the American Record. Twice elected to the office of Governor and called to many other public and valuable employments, he fulfilled them all with general acceptance and conspicuous usefulness to the country and his native State. With a vigorous mind, an energetic and enterprising nature and a natural control over men, the genius to project and power to execute the noblest undertakings, he was equally distinguished and successful in the pursuits of a varied and private business, as in his patriotic and public career. Uniting with these characteristics of mind, the highest manly virtues, a cheerful and buoyant spirit, a conformable and social temper and attractive manners, he was in private and public life one of the most eminent characters to whom the State has ever given birth.

Is it therefore Resolved, That the members of this Society, deeply regretting the death of their fellow member, JOHN M. MOREHEAD, as a token of respect the Hall of the Society be draped in mourning for the term of thirty days.

Be it also Further Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased and a copy filed in the Archives of the Society.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 27, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Clerk of the Superior Court of Chatham gives notice of a Special Term in that County on the first Monday in December.

Pulliam, Jones & Co. wish to purchase 100 oak iron-bound barrels.

The Dialectic Society pays a handsome tribute to our late eminent fellow-citizen, the Hon. Jno. M. Morehead.

Garrett & Co. offer for sale a highly desirable farm of one thousand acres in Edgecombe County. Eight hundred acres are under cultivation, of which six hundred are in cotton.—There are valuable improvements on the premises. For particulars, see advertisement.

Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co. propose to furnish planters with bacon for cotton, at the rate of pound for pound. This strikes us as a most convenient arrangement for our planters and others.

HON. R. R. HEATH.—We were pleased to meet, on yesterday, this distinguished gentleman, formerly one of our Superior Court Judges, and now of Memphis, Tenn., who is at present on a short visit to this State. He is, apparently, in excellent health.

While the removal from the State of such men as Judge Heath must be felt as a great public loss, it is a source of gratification to know that his eminent worth and abilities are properly appreciated in his new home, as we have frequently heard is the case.

WE WERE gratified, this morning, by a visit from Maj. J. A. Engelhard, Editor of that deservedly popular paper, the Wilmington Journal.

THE PROPOSED FACTORY IN THIS CITY.—In noticing, heretofore, the contemplated establishment, in this City, of a Factory, on an extensive scale, for the manufacture of the finer fabrics, ginghams, prints, &c., we have omitted to mention the name of the public-spirited citizen, who projected the enterprise. It is to W. H. Willard, Esq., that our community, and the State, are indebted for the origination of this important industrial movement. Other gentlemen of intelligence, energy and means, have interested themselves in the project, with a laudable desire to promote the interests of the community and State, and we may now regard it as an established fact.

BROOMS.—We are indebted to W. J. Palmer, Esq., Superintendent of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, for some specimen brooms, manufactured at the Institute, by the pupils. We do not hesitate to pronounce them superior, in apparent durability and in finish, to any of the imported brooms. We learn that the manufacture is conducted on an extensive scale, and that the energetic Principal of the Institution can supply orders to any extent, and on favorable terms. We propose, at an early day, paying a visit to the Broom Factory, when we will tell the public all about it.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1866.—Wm. Bell, Ala; B. W. Wheeler, S. C.; J. A. Craven, Jr., Asheboro; Gov. A. Rencher, Chatham; M. Frazier, J. H. Lovett, S. C.; W. C. Rencher, N. C.; A. S. Anderson, Lt. J. K. Wilson, Chas. F. Brown, U. S. A.; E. S. Blackwood, Charlotte; P. C. Thomas, E. G. Ghie, Va.; J. S. Scott, Graham; J. Alexander, Iredell; B. H. Lovelace, Newberry, S. C.; L. N. Humphreys and Lady, Goldsboro; L. H. Murphy, Miss.; Judge A. S. Merriman, Asheville.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Sept. 27.—Frank Vaughn, Elizabeth City, N. C.; Lewis Dart, Richmond, Va.; W. S. Norwood, N. C.; D. W. Kerr, Alamance Co.; P. B. Hawkins, Franklinton, N. C.; J. C. Codner, Wayne.

NEXT LEGISLATURE.—The Old North State publishes an account of a discussion between the candidates for the Legislature in Rowan.—All of them opposed negro suffrage and the Howard amendment.

The same paper states that Gen. J. M. Leach is the Conservative candidate for the Senate in Davidson County without opposition. He warmly sustains the policy of President Johnson, and is quite severe upon the Howard amendment, and those who support it, and especially so upon the Radicals of Davidson who advocate its adoption. Gen. Leach is a very strong man in Davidson, and we venture to predict that no Radical will have the temerity to oppose him.

Henry Walser and C. F. Lowe, Esqrs., are Conservative candidates for the Commons.—Both of the gentlemen are men of ability and will make good representatives,—election sure.

Elijah S. Bell is a candidate to represent Jones and Carteret in the next Senate. He is a Johnson-Worth man, and has no opposition as yet.

Josiah Respass is a candidate for the Senate from Beaufort.

O. G. Foard, Esq., announces himself for the House of Commons from Rowan.

Capt. Neill R. Blue is announced as a candidate for the House of Commons from Cumberland.

Jno. W. Cunningham, Esq., is a candidate for the Senate in Person. W. S. Bradsher and Jno. D. Wilkerson, Esqs., are out for the Commons.

COTTON CROP OF EDGECOMBE.—The Tarboro' Southerner says that many and various speculations have been made relative to the growing Cotton crop of Edgecombe. The Spring was unpropitious for the plant and bad stands were common, almost universal. June and July were favorable and the plant attained a good size, and bolls were plenty. Estimates were made by practical planters that 15 to 16,000 bales would be made, but August set in and with it remarkably cool weather. The oldest planters say they have never known so cool an August. The consequence is rust every where, and in many places rot. From all we can gather from the different sections, we are not disposed to put the crop of the County higher than 10,000 bales.

Repudiation.

GENTLEMEN:—At the request of the gentleman to whom the accompanying letter was addressed, who said he had Mr. Moore's permission, I copy and now send it to you with the request that you publish it in your paper.

A READER.

RALEIGH, Sept. 17th, 1866.

MR. RICHARD SHORT,

Dear Sir:—I have received yours, asking my "opinion, in a few words, whether private debts can be repudiated or not?"

I am greatly surprised that it is deemed necessary to ask this question, after a National existence of near eighty years under the Constitution of the United States, one clause of which declares that "no State shall pass any law impairing the obligation of contracts."

Now every man is bound to support that Constitution, and every sentence of it. And every person, who may become an officer of the State, or member of the Legislature, is compelled, as a necessary qualification before taking his seat, to swear that he will support said Constitution, which he cannot do, and will not do, if he shall pass, or try to pass, any law impairing the obligation of contracts. Every law which annuls a contract, or repudiates it, impairs the obligation of a contract, and is therefore unconstitutional and void. Every man who votes for it commits a perjury and lifts his hand against the majesty and honor of his country.

Surely, sir, no man in our country would, if he could, so dishonor himself or his State as to invite all men to break their faith, each with the other, and affix a stigma on the name of North Carolina which no time may efface. God forbid that my eyes should ever behold this disgrace upon the "Old North State." Such a condition would place her lower than any people of whom we have an account.

I have answered your question, and gone somewhat beyond; but my surprise has been the cause.

I am, respectfully yours,

B. F. MOORE.

P. S.—The Courts of the United States, and of every State, have declared such legislation void.

For the Sentinel.

RALEIGH, Sept. 25th, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The time is fast approaching when the voters of Wake County will be called upon to select suitable persons to represent us in the next Gen. Assembly. The times are sadly out of joint, and it behooves us to select our best practical citizens for such positions. The city of Raleigh is daily improving and its commercial importance increasing. As a general rule, our country friends have always conceded us at least one member. I therefore propose the name of RUFUS S. TUCKER, Esq., as one of the members from this county to the next Assembly. He is the kind of man we need,—a man of strict business habits and a first rate financier: and, besides, he is a conservative national man. The writer does not know whether or not Mr. T. will accept, but hopes that he will sacrifice something of his private interest for the public good. Let us hear from Mr. Tucker.

PUBLICO.

From the National Intelligencer.

The Radical Squad in North Carolina.

A very able citizen of North Carolina, who, not many years since, was very conspicuous in the politics of that State, thus writes to a friend in this city:

"A Radical convention came off at Raleigh on yesterday. I learn that eight counties were represented by eighteen men, about half of them citizens of North Carolina. I am informed that the assemblage took place at Mr. W. W. Holden's private residence, (office,) and that they nominated a candidate for Governor.—You may rest assured that there are not one thousand voters in the State who favor the Congressional plan of reconstruction. Our people are as nearly unanimous in support of President Johnson and his policy as a people can be, and their enthusiastic admiration of and devotion to President Johnson personally exceed anything you can conceive. To give you an idea of the state of public opinion here, the Standard (Mr. Holden's paper,) has for weeks been calling on everybody to come to this Radical convention, without waiting to be appointed by a meeting; and although it has been given out in the Standard that it would be a mass convention, to which all who came would be admitted, yet there was in the meeting, I am informed, but one man, besides Holden, from this county, in which last year Holden received fourteen hundred majority for Governor. I care nothing about it except that it will be published in flaming capitals, by the Radical press all over the North, that there has been a regular Radical Convention held in North Carolina, and a Governor nominated on a Radical platform."

From Knoxville.

Dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., September 20.—Speeches were made to the Convention by Colonels Netherlands, Jarvis, Arnold, and Baxter. Colonel Baxter reviewed the bitter, relentless policy of the Brownlow party, and showed the fearful corruption of the present Radical party, charging that they had misapplied the revenues of the State and placed in high judicial positions men notoriously corrupt and infamous, with the design to continue the anarchy of the past, that they might continue in power. As a Union man, he denied that there was any need of the 30,000 muskets that the Governor was purchasing, and said his whole object was to impoverish the State and make himself notorious. Colonel Baxter has been a strong Union man and a personal friend of Brownlow's, and his charges are damaging. The Convention adjourned sine die.

Jack Hamilton, at Cleveland, spoke of General Grant as a "supple tool in the hands of a tyrant and usurper." (Applause.) How these Torch and Turpentine applauders love the Union and the soldiers who fought for the Union!

The heads of a large number of Radical Revenue officers in Pennsylvania, as also small postmasters in that State, were taken off by the official axe on Saturday.

A dispatch from Columbia announces the adjournment of the South Carolina Legislature, the special session having continued for about two weeks.

Mr. Edward Bates, Attorney-General under Mr. Lincoln's administration, is rapidly declining in health, and it is feared he cannot long survive.

It is stated that in all the cases for treason where bills have been found in the United States Courts of Kentucky, nolle prosequis have been entered.

Gen'l Custar is now called "a bully," by pleasant Radicals.

The radical papers now speak of Gen. Grant as a "Military Adventurer."

It is said that Governor Wells, of Louisiana, has determined to support Presidents Johnson's policy.

The Pittsburg Convention---Butler and "Sich" in their Glory.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.

The proceedings yesterday were attended by several amusing speeches, ridiculing the President, and were listened to with favor.

Butler made a characteristic speech, and Gen. Willis denounced the Cleveland Convention as made up of stragglers.

A dispatch was received from Fremont, which met three cheers. Butler is the lion of the Convention.

Among the resolutions (presented by Colonel Streight) is one asking Congress to direct the President to remove from the late rebel States all arms and munitions of war not needed by the United States there, which was adopted with one vote in the negative, the first and only one of the character cast, and which created a sensation. The resolutions also endorse the constitutional amendment, and assert that its propositions are the mildest terms ever granted to a subdued people,—that the President has no right to a policy, as against the legislative department of the government,—that his acts have converted consumate rebels into importunate claimants to rights which they have forfeited, and places they had desecrated,—that the right of the conqueror to legislate for the conquered is the public law of all civilized nations.

Butler in his remarks said, that as soon as these communities have shown a desire to be received back in an humble way—mark the word—in an humble way, for the clemency held out to them, because it is for men who have erred to be humble—when they acknowledged their mistakes, they should be received, but not until then. Mr. Davis is perhaps, by no means, the worst man in the Southern Confederacy, but he chose to have the place of a representative man; he played for an Empire and staked his life on the result, let him pay the forfeit; (applause,) let it be known for all time that no man shall plot against the Union in the halls of the Congress of the United States. (Applause.) Gen. Lee left the army of the United States and went into Virginia and was at the head of the rebel forces of Virginia before his State seceded, and carried her out at the point of the bayonet. Now, gents, we had an Arnold and he escaped punishment, but he did not remain here. We have, as it seems to me, a equally guilty traitor. The question to be decided in this instance is, whether his surrender as a prisoner of war, when he was captured, shall avail him against the folds of his flag to take service on the side of the enemies of his country. (Cries of No! No!)

I therefore again say that I would make example of this man, so that no soldier hereafter should ever be found to desert the flag of his country. [Good, and cheers.] Now, then, fellow-soldiers, what shall be done with the soldier who deserts his flag and takes with him the scorn of his commander? [Cries of hang him.] Shooting is too good for him who deserts for the purpose of taking command, or bribed by a higher command in the armies of the enemies of his country.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYRES,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.
